LA Animal Services Announces New Commission President

Glenn S. Brown, J.D. elected as new commission president

Los Angeles – Commissioner Glenn S. Brown, J.D., was elected to serve as President of the Los Angeles Animal Services Commission on Monday, July 28, 2008. He has been on the Commission since November 2005. With over twenty five years experience in all areas of the investigation industry, Commissioner Brown brings consummate professionalism and expertise to this role. Mr. Brown is Chief Executive Officer, founder, and owner of Fu-Gen, Inc. Research and Investigation.

Mr. Brown is also responsible for managing the Special Investigation Unit that investigates all fraudulent liability claims for the County of Los Angeles Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA). Mr. Brown is a licensed private investigator in the State of California, and also works as a consultant for employer/employee related issues, accident investigation, and insurance fraud. Widely renowned in the investigation industry, Mr. Brown has been a featured speaker and conducts workshops in many areas, including fraud detection and prevention, workplace issues, liability issues, and transportation related investigations.

Mr. Brown is recipient of numerous awards including Businessman of the Year (BAPAC), and Small Business Enterprise of the Year (LACMTA). He has also served as Director of the Beverly Hills YMCA.

Mr. Brown received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of California, Santa Barbara, and earned his Juris Doctor degree from the University of West Los Angeles School of Law. He is also a graduate of the Texaco Leadership Institute and the University of Southern California Minority Real Estate Development Program.

“The Department of Animal Services is delighted with our current life-affirming Commission”, said Ed Boks, general manager for the department. “Tariq Kherro served with distinction as President since August 2006 and he will continue to serve as a Commissioner as he begins a renewed five-year term. I look forward to working with our Commission under the able leadership of Mr. Brown on a number of innovative programs we have in the works.”
