In an effort to save more animals lives and to help you add more love to your life, Los Angeles Animal Services (LAAS) will open four of its six animal shelters on Friday, November 23, 2012 so the community can help give orphaned pets a home of their own. Adoptions fees will be slashed for Black Friday.

“Between now and Christmas, more pets are taken into homes than any other time of the year”, according to Brenda Barnette, General Manager of LAAS. “This year we are making it even easier for the community for adopt a wonderful shelter pet.”

Adoption fees will be reduced dramatically. Dogs may be adopted for $83.50 and cats are available for $50.50. The discounts will continue through the weekend.

All animals are spayed or neutered prior to adoption, examined by our shelter veterinarian, current on all basic vaccinations, and microchipped for permanent identification. With adoption deals like this, we expect a record turnout.

The locations open on Black Friday are:

- East Valley Shelter, 14409 Vanowen St., Van Nuys, CA 91405
- North Central Shelter, 3201 Lacy St., Los Angeles, CA 90031
- South LA Shelter, 3612 11th Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90018
- West Valley Shelter, 20655 Plummer St., Chatsworth, CA 91311

The shelters will be open for adoptions and animal viewing from 8 AM to 5 PM.

Los Angeles Animal Services is one of the largest municipal shelter systems in the United States with six shelters serving approximately 60,000 animals annually and responding to 20,000 emergency calls involving an animal or person in danger each year.
